Dr. Childs will, with very great pleasure & pride, avail himself of Mr. Garrison's kind permission & call

tomorrow (Friday)
between 9 & 11 a. m.

Dr Childs is the son of the once John Childs of Bungay, a man who all his life, in

Hs.A.1.2 v.39, p. 688

the limited sphere the politics of this country afford, made sacrifice
at the shrine of principle & duty — The name of William Lloyd Garrison
was always an honored
name in his home, & though no doubt Mr Garrison has forgotten
it, he was a frequent correspondent at Roxbury.

S. Childs's introduction to Mr. Garrison adds to the obligations he is already under to dear Mrs Nichol, & Edinburgh.

Will Mr. Garrison
be pleased to D. Childs, bring his wife with him — a young Scotch Lady, who has learned to revere that which is revered.
